Al Gomes, Mardo Atoyán and A. Michelle have collaborated on a series of photographs in an exhibit entitled Where's My Manners? The prints are characterized by dramatic textural and lighting contrasts, evoking the work of legendary photographer Aaron Siskind.

Gomes and Atoyán originally shot the photographs in 1985 as part of a series of numerous creative endeavors. Their other projects included co-producing two musical plays and directing several film and animation comedy shorts.

A decade later, the duo has enlisted A. Michelle to explore the nuances of digital illustration by enhancing and colorizing their photographs for this exhibit.

Gomes and A. Michelle co-own Big NOISE, a company specializing in the concept, design and manufacture of CDs and cassettes.
