REV. EDWARD H. FLANNERY
EDITOR

February 8, 1962

Dear Irving,

Trying always to limit as far as possible my efforts for Fair Housing, etc., to editorial and news work in the Visitor, I would rather not be the one to ask Mr. Darigan to join.

I would be willing to lend my name for use in the effort. Perhaps I might speak to Father McConnell to help the cause. You could ask Miss Hird or perhaps you have someone else in mind.

I will see you Friday and discuss it.

Cordially,

Mr. Irving J. Fain
