Peacedale, R. I. Nov. 14th, 1889,

Dear Mr. Colby,

Please let me trouble you to inform me who is the most desirable Healing Medium in Barton, and his address.

Mrs. Sarah Rockwood was a great loss, ^{and to a great many people,} My late lamented brother, Rowland Gibbon Starard, of Peacedale, R. I., consulted her, and constantly, during the last twelve or fifteen months of his life, and her prescriptions greatly modified his suffering during this period, and — I have no doubt — prolonged it a year, at least.

During this period, he was enabled ^{thru by} to take a drive every pleasant day,

P. S, I feel very sure that ^{Mr.} Mary Hull was the Medium whom my ^{late} father, Thomas R. Hazard employed during several seasons, at his house at "Naucleton", R. I.
If I am mistaken herein, please inform me.

Do you know if she is yet living, and if she is in comfortable ^{circumstances}
~~Condition~~ of life. J. P. H.

Please give me the name of the "Spiritual Temple" in the City of Boston, that Mr. Ayer, (I think it was) had built at his own expense, and presented to The Spiritualists of Boston,
I think,
J. P. H.
