The International Ball, an “Adventure in Internationality Friendship” will be given by members of the Senior Club Council and Friends of the International Institute, Thursday evening, November 21, at the Narragansett Hotel.

A program of Nationality Episodes featuring folk song and folk dance, in costume, will be presented by groups whose nationality background represents Spanish America, Greece, Portugal, Italy, Poland, Armenia, Germany and Early Colonial America, and a final Grand March including all groups.

Social dancing with music by Ed Drew and his orchestra will follow till 1 A.M.

The internationality fellowship has already begun weeks ago when committee representation of several national groups have been busy working together on plans for the Ball.

Tickets, $1.00 per person, are available at the International Institute and through many committee members.

Guests are urged to come in nationality costume when such are available. Dress optional.
