PARTING HYMN.

MEMBERS OF CLASS OF JUNE, '79.

PARTING HYMN.

We, voyagers o'er life's fitful sea,
Have anchored here and happily;
The days and seasons quick have passed,
And now, too soon, has come the last.

Adieu to you, our teachers dear,
With thanks for favors tasted here.
Ye scenes where mem'ry loves to dwell,
Ye dear, familiar scenes—farewell!

The hour is come; we may not stay;
The word is given: we haste away;
In separate barques we put to sea
And wish to each prosperity.

If bounteous Heaven will deign to guide
Us safely o'er life's dangerous tide,
The voyage and perils over-past,
'T will bring us safe to Him at last.

JUNE, '79.
