Rhode Island College Alumni Bulletin

Rhode Island College

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.ric.edu/alumni_news

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.ric.edu/alumni_news/27

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives & College History at Digital Commons @ RIC. It has been accepted for inclusion in Alumni News, The Review, & The Alumni Review by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ RIC. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@ric.edu.
ALUMNI OFFICERS

MARGARET GRADY BRESNAHAN '45
President

DONALD J. DRISCOLL '54
First Vice-President

CAROLINE MAGNATTA MARZILLI '51
Second Vice-President

ELENA CALABRO LEONELLI '42
Treasurer

ELEANOR L. MOLLOY '35
Recording Secretary

AGNES KEENAN '45
Corresponding Secretary

MARY G. DAVEY '41
Alumni Secretary

Cover picture and picture on Page 6 courtesy Providence Journal Co.

ALUMNI BULLETIN

VOLUME 9, NUMBER 1

Published five times a year in October, December, February, April and June; Member, American Alumni Council.

CONTENTS

Page

First Alumni Lecture ........................................... 2

Ten Year Forecast ............................................. 4

A Giant Step .................................................. 5

Around the College .......................................... 6

Alumni Activities ........................................... 8

News Notes .................................................. 9

Calendar for Alumni ....................................... 11
First Alumni Lecture Scheduled

John Mason Brown is reputed to be the most popular lecturer in the entire lecture world, will give the first Alumni Lecture on Monday evening, November 21.

The Lecture is named for the Alumni, although it is actually sponsored by the College. It is the first cultural activity of the College to be financed out of the Alumni Fund. It is the hope of the College administration that the Alumni Lecture will be an annual event, bringing to the campus each fall an outstanding speaker of national reputation.

John Mason Brown is a panelist of TV's "The Last Word", a contributing Editor of The Saturday Review, a Board member of the Book-of-the-Month Club, and a widely acclaimed lecturer, author and critic. He is noted for the brilliance of his presentation as well as for his wisdom and his understanding of people.

To date he is the author of seventeen books, including BROADWAY IN REVIEW, TWO ON THE AISLE, THE MODERN THEATRE IN REVOLT, THROUGH THESE MEN — SOME ASPECTS OF OUR PASSING HISTORY, DANIEL BOONE, and LETTERS FROM GREENROOM GHOSTS. He has written numerous magazine articles and literally thousands of reviews for the Saturday Review, the New York World-Telegram, and the Post. He also edited and wrote the introduction and commentaries for the Ladies Home Journal Treasury and is now working on a biography of the late Robert Sherwood.

His lecture topic for the College presentation is Seeing Things. He will discuss the present day world as reflected in plays, books, and films.

The Alumni Lecture, scheduled to begin at 8:00 P.M. on the evening of November 21, will be open to the public without charge. However, to insure seating for students and alumni of the College, admission will be by ticket. These tickets may be obtained at the Alumni Office or at the General Office of the College.
The 1980 Rhode Island College Campus Development Plan has been drawn up by Blair Associates, a professional planning firm, and accepted by the Board of Trustees of State Colleges. The tentative construction calendar is as follows: (Present campus includes buildings 1-6)

TO BE COMPLETED BY:

1962
14. Dormitory No. 1
7. Library (minus left wing)
8. Science Building No. 1
9. Dining Center No. 2 (Main Building)
2. Conversion of Library and Student areas

1964
10. Classroom Building No. 1
12. Health and Physical Education Center Dining Center No. 2
9. Second stage

1966
11. Science Building No. 2
16. Dormitory No. 2
1. Music annex at rear of Robert Hall

1970
7. Library-Left Wing added
16. Dormitory No. 3
1. Administration annex on right of Roberts Hall

1975
13. Classroom Building No. 2
17. Dormitory No. 4
19. Amphitheatre
21. Athletic Storage and Service
22. Maintenance
A Giant Step . . .

The first step in the ten-year plan depicted on the opposite page is the construction of the library building and the science classroom building. This is to be financed by the bond issue appearing on the November 8 ballot. The importance of its passage is obvious.

The Act provides: $6,000,000 for new buildings at the two state colleges.

at the University of Rhode Island —
$3,500,000 for
library building
health science center

at Rhode Island College —
$2,500,000 for
library building
science building
land purchase

There are now 1,000 undergraduates at Rhode Island College and 3,150 at the University of Rhode Island. By 1970 there will be 23,500 young people in Rhode Island seeking a college education. We must provide for 13,900 undergraduates in Rhode Island public colleges by then.

AT UNIVERSITY OF RHODE ISLAND

The University, as the major state-supported center of higher and advanced education, is expecting an enrollment of 5,200 by 1970. Space in Green Hall Library has been outgrown and the present book capacity of 200,000 must be doubled by 1970. Present seating capacity of 400 must be expanded to 1,000.

The health science center will house the rapidly growing College of Pharmacy and School of Nursing, and the new Dental Hygiene Program. All three programs are now in temporary quarters.

WHERE DO THEY GO?

The Class of 1960 reports that its members are distributed about and beyond the state in these numbers: Barrington 3, Bristol 2, Charlestown 3, Coventry 1, Cranston 18, Cumberland 4, East Providence 5, Exeter 1, Foster 1, Ponaganset 1, Glocester 1, Johnston 1, Lincoln 3, Middletown 1, Newport 1, North Kingstown 6, North Providence 1, North Smithfield 2, Pawtucket 8, Providence 26, Scituate 1, Warren 1, Warwick 22, Woonsocket 4; Connecticut 3, Florida 1, Maryland 1, Massachusetts 2, New York 1, Georgia 1.

URGE YOUR FRIENDS TO VOTE "APPROVE" FOR THE STATE COLLEGES DEVELOPMENT ACT ON NOVEMBER 8.

AT RHODE ISLAND COLLEGE

Rhode Island College still has as its major responsibility the education of teachers for Rhode Island's schools and the quality of education in the schools of the state will depend directly upon the quality of the education that these prospective teachers receive. With the present facilities on the new campus only 1,000 students, the number now enrolled, can be accommodated without overcrowding. Predicted enrollment for 1970 is 3,500.

Future Teachers of science must have up-to-date laboratories in which to learn the basic sciences. The new science building will meet this need and will also provide classroom space.

At present the library is housed in the student center. The new building is planned for eventual use by 4,000 students. It will be flexible in structure and in the immediate future will provide for much-needed classroom as well as essential book space.

ENROLLMENT FIGURES SOAR

1040 students are enrolled at the College this year. This figure, which includes almost 300 men, reflects the admission of very large classes during the past few years. With this enrollment the capacity of the present College facilities, set at the time of construction at 1000, is already exceeded.
Dr. James P. Adams was honored with the presentation of an honorary degree at the opening convocation of the school year, held at the College on Thursday afternoon, September 15. In the picture above he receives a standing ovation at the close of his message of acceptance.

Following the convocation a reception was held by the faculty of the College to honor Dr. Adams and the Board of Trustees of State Colleges.

THIRTY-TWO NEW MEMBERS ADDED TO THE COLLEGE FACULTY

Three alumni of the College are among the thirty-two new members added to the College faculty this fall. Camela E. Santoro '37 will be an Assistant Professor in the Social Studies Division of the College. She will be responsible for the practicum and student teaching in Social Studies and English. Elisa F. Bonaventura '49, Assistant Professor, will teach a special class at Henry Barnard School. Ann L. Hogan '50 has been appointed Assistant Director of Public Relations.

Others added to the faculty this year are: History—John Browning, Geography—Dr. Richard Silvernail and Paul Crawford, Foreign Languages—Lilian Avila, Rita Couture, and Barbara Stanton, English—Carl Stenberg, Dr. Leonard Rice, Edward J. Owen and Annette Ducey, Art—John DeMelm, Jr., Speech—Katherine M. Ettia, Mathematics—H. Samuel Hall, Frank D. Johnson, Margaret Jacoby and Mrs. Rika Spungin, Science—Henry McCutcheon, Biology, Ira Lough, Biology, Dr. John Dillon, Jr., Physics, Physical Education—Dr. Fannie Mercer, Department Head, Patricia Moore, Philosophy—Dr. Thomas Howell, Psychology—Morton Felix and Dr. Hope Solomons, Library—Gertrude Mellon, Henry Barnard School—M's. Rose Merenda, Gertrude Baron, Joseph Parfenchuck and James A. Studley, Adjunct Professors, Dr. Eric Denhoff and Dr. Maurice Laufer.

LARGE GROUP LECTURES IN PSYCHOLOGY

Dr. Maurice Laufer, Director of the Emma Pendleton Bradley Home and adjunct professor on the College faculty, is scheduled to deliver a series of psychology lectures to the combined sophomore psychology classes during the coming year. The lectures are also open to interested faculty and upperclassmen. Arrangements may be made on an individual basis for alumni to attend.

All lectures will be held at 2:00 P.M.

The schedule is: October 26—Freudian Concept of Personality Development; November 9—Newer Knowledge and the Freudian Approach to Personality Development; December 14—Why are the Preschool and Early Childhood Periods Significant in Personality Development; February 8—The Emotional Disorders of Childhood and Therapy; March 8—Psycho-analysis and Learning; April 12—The Significance of the Adolescent Period in Terms of Psycho-analytical Approach to Personality Development; May 10—What is Mental Maturity?

RHODE ISLAND ATTRACTS FIRST PLACE STUDENTS

Five top-ranking students from the 1960 graduating classes of the state have chosen to enter Rhode Island College to prepare for teaching. A survey conducted by the Providence Journal in June revealed that of the 52 students who held the rank of one in their respective classes, seventeen looked forward to becoming teachers. Among these, five entered RIC, two URI, two Salve Regina, and one each to eight other colleges.
AFRICAN INSTITUTE
SET FOR NOVEMBER 17

Dr. Gwendolyn M. Carter, Professor of Government at Smith College, will give the principal address during the African Institute which will be held at the College on Thursday, November 17. Dr. Carter will speak on "The Forces of Integration in Africa".

The Institute will open at 2:00 P.M. with a welcome by President Gaige in Roberts Hall. A panel, chaired by Dr. Carter, will consider the topic, "The Forces of Disintegration in Africa." Panel members will be Dr. Barry N. Floyd of the Department of Geography, Dartmouth College, Dr. Abolom Vilakazi of the Department of Anthropology, Hartford Seminary Foundation, and Dr. L. Gray Cowan of the Department of Government, Columbia University.

There will be a pause for refreshments and reception at 3:00 P.M.

Ben H. Bagdikian of the Providence Journal will moderate a Panel-forum of students on "Youth Looks at Changing Africa." The panelists will include three native Africans and two American students with some experience in Africa. The panel begins at 4:30 P.M.

Dinner will be served at 6:00 P.M., followed by Dr. Carter's talk at 7:30 P.M.

The Institute is the highlight of a semester program which includes weekly lectures on Africa by members of the Social Studies department, Professor Marion I. Wright, Dr. Ridgway F. Shinn, and Dr. Lawrence W. Lindquist.

The African Institute is being financed in part by the Alumni Fund.

Orientation by Television

(See Cover)

For the second year Dr. Mary T. Thorp, Director of Laboratory Experiences for the College, is conducting part of the Freshman Orientation program by means of closed-circuit television. While half of the students continue to receive their first experience in the laboratory school in the traditional way, visiting the classroom and having direct contact with the children, the other half are participating in an exploratory program by which the College hopes to continue the professional orientation of its students as the numbers grow beyond the limits of the old system.

One room in the elementary wing of the School has been set aside as a television classroom. It has three microphones suspended from the ceiling, a permanent television camera attached to the rear wall and a mobile camera present on the floor of the classroom. An adjoining room, originally set up as an observation area with one-way glass, serves as a control room. Here the technical aspects of the program are coordinated, sound is checked, and the pictures are selected and transmitted. In the music room as many as 100 students can observe the demonstration lesson at once. With both cameras in action at all times, the class has a constant view of the entire classroom, while the second monitor shows a variety of things as they are selected by Dr. Thorp. They may see in closeup expressions, paper work, blackboard illustrations and other details of the class activity that they might never really observe from a seat in the back of the classroom.

As the study enters its second year its value to the students involved is generally accepted and the effort is currently to find better ways to handle the equipment, valued at $17,000, and the schedule involved.

Each lesson is preceded by an orientation given to the students by the classroom teacher and is followed by a conference with the teacher. During the times when the teacher is away from her class, selected members of the senior class take charge. Dr. Thorp coordinates the program and supervises all phases of it. Technical aspects of the program are handled by Robert P. Danilowicz, Director of the College's audio-visual program.
Alumni Activities...

COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN NAMED

Committee chairmen who will serve with the Executive Board this year in conducting the activities of the Alumni Association are:

Program: Gail Brady '58; Publicity, Mildred Brennan Nugent '46; Membership, Marie C. Kelley '46; Legislation, Joseph A. Whelan '42; Nominating, Mary Beagan '35; College Expansion, Frank Burns '51; Continuing Education, Anne J. Bourke '47; Bequest Program Planning, Arthur R. Pontarelli '43; Alumni Fund, chairman, Donald Driscoll '54, co-chairman, Frank A. Bucci '54; Faculty Reception, Caroline Magnatta Marzilli '51; Sports Supper, Abraham G. Asermley '51; Scholarship Bridge, Angela DePalma '31; Alumni Ball, K. Claire King '45; Senior Reception, Helen King Cavanaugh '36; Alumni Day, Albert Choquette '54.

SPORTS SUPPER SCHEDULED
FOR NOVEMBER 16

Cappy Asermley is chairman of the committee arranging for the annual sports supper to be held by and for the men of the Alumni on November 16. The date was changed this year to the fall for the convenience of the men who are involved in coaching duties. It is hoped that more will be able to attend at this time. Another innovation is the change to a buffet meal, so the men can move about more easily than with banquet service.

Jim Duffy, well-known coach of professional basketball, will be the speaker of the evening. The College coaches will attend as guests and the men will have an opportunity to catch up on the news on College sports. A coffee bar will be open for the bull session following the formal program.

Assisting on the Sports Supper planning committee are:

Arthur Pontarelli, General Invitations; DaVinci DeLuca, Hospitality; Aaron F. Demoranville Jr., Special Invitations; Charles F. Bresnahan, Tickets; Anthony Agetiello, Arrangements.

WESTERLY CLUB NEWS

The Westerly Club of the Rhode Island College Alumni held its first meeting of the year at the General Stanton Inn, Charlestown. A buffet dinner was followed by a talk by Mary G. Davey, Alumni Secretary, on the changes and plans at the College. A brief business meeting closed the evening. The record attendance of forty-five members included two men, a landmark in the history of the Club.

Florence Saunders Madison '38, president of the Chapter, conducted the meeting.

Joseph Lewiss, newly appointed principal of High Street and Bradford Schools, spoke to the Parent Teacher organization of High Street School at its October meeting, urging active support for the State Colleges bond issues on the November ballot.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE UNDERWAY

Marie C. Kelley, chairman of the membership committee, has started an active effort to enlarge the membership in the Alumni Association by sending letters to non-members in recent classes. As the year goes on, she intends to reach as many as possible who are not active, to urge that they give support to the College and to the activities of the Association.

ALUMNI SUPPORT FOR
SPORTS PROGRAM URGED

The Executive Board has this year selected the opening game of the College basketball season as an Alumni Support Night, urging all graduates of the College to start the season with the team and lend active support to the program.

RIC will play Barrington College for the opener on November 30. A pre-conference game, the Barrington match will afford the alumni a chance to give the team a psychological boost toward a winning season.

Following the game, alumni are invited to join the team for coffee in the College cafeteria.

SOCcer TEAM LOOKS
TO SUCCESSFUL SEASON

With a 2-2 record mid-way through the eight game conference schedule the College team is optimistic about its chances to end up among the conference leaders. Some of this confidence, according to Coach Ed Bodga, is due to the successful pre-conference record of the team. Scores to date are:

RIC 4, Alumni 3; RIC 1, New Bedford Tech. Inst. 5; RIC 4, Durfee Tech. Inst. 1; RIC 6, Barrington College 2; RIC 2, Salem 0; RIC 1, Fitchburg 3; RIC 0, Keene 1; RIC 3, Castleton 2.
CLASS NOTES...

1921

Genevieve Harrington was honored with a dinner party on the occasion of her retirement from the Newport School System in June.

1925

Mother M. Jarlath (Gertrude McGann), has returned to the United States as the newly elected Provincial of the American Province of the Franciscan Missionaries of Mary. Mother Jarlath served as a missionary in the Philippines, was imprisoned by the Japanese, returned to the North Providence novitiate of the order to become Novice Mistress and ten years ago was named first assistant American Mother General in Rome.

1928

Elizabeth Boutelle Laas has been named supervisor of services to children within their own homes for the state Department of Social Welfare.

1930

William R. Loughrey has been appointed principal of the new $2,000,000 Middletown Junior-Senior High School scheduled to open in the fall of 1961. He has been serving Newport simultaneously as assistant principal of Rogers High School, guidance director for the Newport Schools, director of adult education and principal of the Newport summer school.

1933

Josef Lewiss has been appointed principal of the High Street and Bradford Schools in Westerly.

1934

Fred J. Hutchins, a member of the faculty of the Englewood (N.J.) School for Boys, a private day school, has been elected assistant national director of the National Thespians Society at its annual meeting at Indiana University. He was honored at the National Drama Festival in Indiana, when a scene from “The Crucible” which he directed was chosen as the best in the Festival.

1937

Mary A. Powers, was program director at Camp Mohawk, England, t.i.; summer. The camp is operated by the North Atlantic Girl Scouts for the daughters of Air Force personnel. Betty Armington '48, assigned to the Heidelberg office of North Atlantic Girl Scouts as field adviser of the national staff, was camp director.

1938

Roland Archambeault, who has been instructing in algebra and physics at John F. Dering High School, West Warwick, has been named principal of the school.

1939

Ruth Mulvaney Gamache is teaching this year at Palmer River School, Rehoboth, Mass.

1942

Leeman E. Haines Ed.D. '42 received his Doctor of Philosophy degree from the University of Connecticut in June, sharing honors with his daughter, Anne, who received her Bachelor's degree at the same time.

1943

P. Francis Carroll Ed.M. '43 has been appointed principal of Rogers High School, Newport.

1948

Rita Kenny, teacher at Curtis School, Pawtucket, attended a six-week Earth Science Institute at Rutgers University, this summer.

1949

Thomas P. Cullen has been named director of guidance at Camp Barton School, Fall River, Mass.

1951

Eleanor Hawes Berggren is teaching this year in Springfield, Mass.

1956

Lucille Moreau has been appointed to teach mathematics and science at Coventry High School.

1957

Delphina Oliver Souza is teaching third grade at Fort Barton School, Fall River.

1958

Mary F. Griffin Ed. M. '58 has been promoted from Assistant supervisor of gifted children to supervisor of the program at Fall River.

1961

Patricia Wildprett Jaworski is teaching first grade in Pumpkin Delight School, Milford, Mass.
WEDDING BELLS

Edna J. Viau '53 and Lucian B. Fleurant
Pauline R. Lemieux and Roland R. Blais '55
Pauline J. Leroux and Joseph A. Genereux '55
Catherine E. Leonard '56 and Anthony Gibalerio, Jr.
Carol McSweeney '56 and Joseph D'Silva
Maureen McHugh '59 and Roger Vierra '56
Rosaleen Mantzaris '57 and Lawrence Baldwin
Carole A. Casey '58 and Thomas Roberts
Jacquelyn L. Dubois '58 and James M. Larson
Geraldine Steiner '60 and John B. Judge '58
Phyllis A. McDole '58 and Paul E. Campbell
Carmelita Trigo '58 and James F. Davey
Marguerite Braeliz '59 and Gerald P. Bourgeois '59
Mary Ann Canis '59 and Arthur K. Johnston
Janet I. Carey '59 and Paul J. Vallieri
Edith M. Davis '59 and Joseph Menard '60
Hope E. Day '59 and James J. Pilkinson, Jr.
M. Susan Lombardi '59 and Edward Hennigan
DorothyBuccini and Anthony Marino '59
Audrey E. McMillan '59 and John E. Rearick
Judith Mulligan '60 and David Moore '59
JoAnn C. Paparelli '59 and Joseph A. Ferranti
Janice Pezzulo '59 and Richard T. Varone
Ann Treanor '59 and Richard B. Kiley
Janice Wade '59 and Lloyd Richmond
Sarah Hadfield '51 and Daniel Andrews '60
Sharon Army '60 and Anthony DiNapoli
Carol Arvidson '60 and Donald R. Allen
Anne E. Barry '50 and Gerald Collin
Constance Cherms '60 and Barry M. Honan
Gail Chesbrough '60 and Henry C. Feddern
Geraldine Croce '60 and Kenneth E. Grant
Susan Ettlinger '61 and Paul Eastwood '69
Jacqueline Lussier '60 and William Hickey, Jr.
Marjorie Malley '60 and Raymond Morrisey
Patricia Micone '60 and Guy Giammassi
Janice Parkinson '60 and William Crossdale
Martha M. Quinn '60 and Dr. Paul A. Mathieu
Carol B. Sokloff '60 and Charles Stonehill Kathryn Thompson '60 and Anthony Perrone, Jr.
Carol Walsh '60 and Austin D. Langton, Jr.

CANDIDATES FOR THE CLASS
OF SEPTEMBER, 1978?

Mary-Jane, daughter of Mary Cadden Loiselle '47
Veronica Frances, daughter of Frances Steere DiPippo '50
Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Edward P. Travers '51
Saul, son of Helene Korb Yoffe '52
Ann Marie, daughter of Ann McSherry McLaughlin '52
J. Jeffrey, son of Veronica Cox Varone '52
Kathleen Lee, daughter of Joan Carlson Lee '54
William Thomas and Kevin Edward, twin sons of Mary Lou Coleman Gibbs '56
Nancy Lorraine, daughter of Nancy Beagan Miller '56
David John, son of Natalie DiPonte Migneault '57
Sean Michael, son of Angela Parillo Dalton '58
John, son of Maureen Kenny Lennon '58
Paul David, son of Marianne Maynard Gardiner '59

WE NOTE WITH REGRET
THE PASSING OF . . .

Elizabeth M. Feeley '96 retired Providence school teacher; Clara McCarthy Raftery '01 one-time Providence teacher, active leader in women's organizations; Anna T. Brennan '05, retired Pro v idence teacher; Alice McVay Cawley '09 one-time
Pawtucket teacher, active in women's organizations; Grace Healey Donovan '13; Mary Monahan
Hanley '18, Social Arts Director, Nathan Bishop
Junior High School, Providence; Jennie Hall Palmer '18, teacher at Central High School, Providence;
Ellen R. Shields '24 principal of Lexington Ave.
School, Providence; Anna T. Degnan McCoart '29,
Providence teacher; Mary E. McMahon Cahill '31 elementary school teacher, Holliston, Mass.

BOARD ROOM NAMED TO HONOR FORMER TRUSTEE

The meeting room of the Board of Trustees of State Colleges was renamed the A. Livingston Kelley Room in a brief ceremony at the College October 19. Mr. Kelley served on the Board from 1939 to 1955, and was chairman from 1950 to 1955.

Urge your friends to vote “approve” for the State Colleges Development Act on November 8.
CALENDER FOR RHODE ISLAND ALUMNI - 1960-61

September 18—Soccer—Alumni
September 20—Executive Board Reception for Faculty
October 5—Soccer—Fitchburg
October 10—Graduate Lecture: Dr. A. L. Rowse
October 20—Soccer—Salem
October 28—Soccer—Keene
November 3—Graduate Lecture: Dr. Donald P. Cottrell
November 16—SPORTS SUPPER (FOR MEN ONLY)
November 17—African Institute
November 18-19—Dramatic League Production: Bus Stop
November 21—ALUMNI LECTURE: JOHN MASON BROWN
November 30—Basketball—Barrington (Alumni Support Night)
December 6—Graduate Lecture: Dr. Franklin Paterson
December 9—Basketball—Plymouth
December 11—Choir Concert
December 14—Basketball—Alumni charged
December 16—Basketball—Westfield
January 4—Basketball—Worcester
January 9—Basketball—Boston
January 9—Graduate Lecture: Dr. Ernest Stabler
January 16—Basketball—Willimantic
January 21—ALUMNI SCHOLARSHIP BRIDGE
February 1—Basketball—Fitchburg
February 6—Basketball—Keene
February 8—Basketball—Lowell
February 11—Basketball—Gorham
February 13—Basketball—Barrington
March 4—BACK TO COLLEGE DAY
April 15—ALUMNI BALL
April 16—Choir Concert
April 21-22—Dramatic League Production
May 5-6—Modern Dance Concert (Admission
May 16—ALUMNI RECEPTION FOR SENIORS
June 3—ALUMNI DAY
June 10—Commencement

*Only Home Games Listed

RHODE ISLAND COLLEGE IS GROWING!

BE AWARE OF THE GROWTH OF YOUR ALMA MATER THROUGH A SUBSCRIPTION TO THE ANCHOR. SIMPLY FILL IN THE SUBSCRIPTION BLANK BELOW. (ENCLOSE PAYMENT OR BE BILLED LATER.)

A newspaper is an essential part of any community. Help the ANCHOR to grow with the College!

Anchor Subscription ($1.80 per year)

Name ........................................................................................................
Address ...................................................................................................

— Check enclosed — Please bill me later.
Approval of the —

STATE COLLEGES DEVELOPMENT ACT

Depends On You

Remind your friends to

VOTE for the State Colleges Nov. 8

RHODE ISLAND COLLEGE
ALUMNI BULLETIN