College participation in World Affairs Week was climaxed March 15 when students and faculty together with interested guests heard a highly informative and pertinent lecture entitled "The Balkans and World Peace." The speaker was Mrs. Edwin T. Sanders, educator and traveler. She was present at the assembly by the Honorable John O. Pastore, Governor of Rhode Island, who, in his introductory address, said of Mrs. Sanders' experience in the educational field, both here and in the Balkans, "The Governor also stressed the need for international good will, understanding, and cooperation in the world today.

Rhode Island may well be proud of Mrs. Sanders, for she was born here, attended Cranston High School and Pembroke College, and later returned to receive her Master of Arts degree in Near Eastern History from Brown University. Mrs. Sanders is well qualified to speak on the Balkans, for she has traveled in the Balkans and the Near East, and has taught English in the American College in Sofia. In addition, she has taught History here in America. Her husband, Dr. Roderick Sanders, is famous in his own right, being head of the Department of Sociology at the University of Kentucky, a traveler and lecturer in Eastern Europe, and former Agricultural Attaché at the American Embassy, Belgrade, Yugoslavia.

Mrs. Sanders spoke of the stark despair and the grimness of the situation in the Balkans, and of the hope for better days which these people refuse to relinquish. She emphasized that Americans have established a tradition of mutual respect and cooperation, and that these concepts are as valid today as they were in the days of earlier explorers and traders.

---

I.R.C. Sponsors Packages for French, Danes

The International Relations Club is actively engaged in promoting a clothing drive for the benefit of war-ridden peoples in France and Denmark. Packages are dispatched weekly to these two countries, under the direction of Jacqueline McCormick, I.R.C. chairman; Tom Egan, her assistant; Esther Sullivan, Teresa Marchand, and Patricia Donovan. In addition to clothing apparel, many other articles are urgently needed, among them needles and thread, material, blankets, yarn, soap, canned goods, buttons, dried fruits and garden seeds. A complete list is available at the College Shop, which has been selected as the receiving station for all donations.

Both faculty and student body are requested to contribute wholeheartedly to this worthy work. This is an excellent opportunity to foster the spirit of international brotherhood. The drive will continue through the remainder of the semester. Because of the likelihood that some may be interested in striking up a correspondence with the foreign distributors of these packages, their names and addresses have been included.

Cécile Decary 3 Rue Gustave Le Bon Paris 14, France
Theresa Dauda Roominghall 45 Copenhagen, Denmark

---

Echoes from Milwaukee

The cooperative efforts of Barnard faculty and students will make possible an appearance of the distinguished "Americans All—Immigrants All" on April 2 in the Barnard Auditorium. All students will participate in some form or other of the celebration. Many will act asushers and generally assist Miss Jordan, who is Chairman of the entire program.

The theme is "music as a common bond of understanding between nations...and as the universal language in the teaching of music." Its development, through the songs and dances of many countries, reveals that as Americans we have inherited the culture of the world: England, Holland, Sweden, France, Scotland, the American Negro, Spain, Germany, Hungary, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Russia, Ukraine, Greece.

---

Barnard Pageant Offers Cultural Heritage of U. S.

MARCH 11, 1946

Greetings from Room 3439 on the 14th floor of Hotel Schoener in Milwaukee, Wisconsin:

Milwaukee, 'America's Dairyland,' has, during the past few days, been entertaining the cream of the crop. (Get it? We think it's quite clever.) From nearly all the states of the Union there have been representatives of Kappa Delta Pi chapter, we are greeted by 'How y' all?' or 'Ain't from Texas,' or 'We're from New York!' At the Convention are many famous educators of the country, who combine quick thinking, humor, and philosophy so cleverly that their fellow Kappaladies are inspired by them and imbibed with their spirit.

Prominent among them are T. C. McCracken, the Executive President of Kappa Delta Pi and former Dean of the College of Education of Ohio University. Dr. McCracken has presided at all the large meetings of the group. At the last, he offered as the slogan for the Convention, 'Kappa Delta Pi, in recognition through the personal development of its chapter members, and stimulation to greater zeal and higher standards in education.' He pointed out that one characteristic of the members should be friendliness in spirit, since in teaching they are the only professionals and the really human are needed.

Our Laurate Counselor is Dr. William C. Bagley, editor of the publication "School and Society," Professor Emeritus of Teachers College, Columbia University. This man, with his thick silvery-white hair and his engaging personality, has been outstandingly active and interested in Kappa Delta Pi since its foundation in 1911. Among the many points Dr. Bagley brought out are these:

In recent years, graduates from teachers colleges have been entering the business world because of more attractive salaries and have thus created an acute shortage of teachers. The crux of the problem is that we must make the profession so attractive that people wish to come into it. This shortage is true in Europe as in America. We should raise not only the educational status of the teacher, but also her social status in the community.

We have heard two very interesting lectures since the beginning of the Convention, delivered by Mr. J. B. Showe, Dean of Education at Marshall College, Huntington, West Virginia, and by Mr. Charles Hubbard Judd, who has taught at many universities, written numerous educational articles, and, during recent years, has been a consultant of the War Department. After giving a brief Continued on Page 9

---

Music School Inaugurated in College Summer Session

Dr. Donovan, Director, announces Bulletin to Be Issued in April

Dr. Fred J. Donovan, Director of Summer School at Rhode Island College of Education, announces that sessions will extend from June 26 to July 31, through thirty hours class meetings, six days a week. The courses are given primarily for teachers in service who wish to complete requirements for certification or for advancement in their professions.

This year, the College is inaugurating a Summer School of Music. The entire course completing the specialization in Music required by the State Department of Education.

Holders of Bachelor's degrees may apply music credit towards a Master's Degree. Individual music courses, some of which are especially valuable to Kindergarten and Elementary school teachers, are open to all. The music faculty includes Professor Geraldine Galway, Director of Music, Milton, Massachusetts, and Mr. Wilfred Roberts, Director of Band and Orchestra at LaSalle Academy. Candidates for certification in music should confer with Miss McGuire.

Other faculty members include the following:

Charles O. Ether, Ed. M., Frank Continued on Page 5

---

Classes Stress Cheer Songs in Annual Contest

The accustomed aura of secrecy and evasion still pervades the mystery of Song Contest Night to be held on this year on April 2. Under these conditions even the "newest" reporter would be placed at a disadvantage, but gallant 'Anchors' armed with a will and a way set out resolutely and, against all odds, came home victorious—empty-handed! But this much is evident because of excellent song material(?) superior voices(?) and a genuine spirit of cooperation(?) each class is confident of victory.

As in past years each class must present an Alma Mater and Cheer Song preferably with original words and music. This year sees the inclusion of an additional stipulation— that the competing schools not class songs. It is felt that previously there has been undue emphasis placed on class spirit rather than on college loyalty. This additional Continued on Page 4
MAXILLARY MASTICATION

Society condemns them, criticizes them, never lets them go unnoticed, and hasn't just a soft plop. The gum chewer's society. There seems to be a deep satisfaction in squashing, beating, and squeezing the very life out of a piece of gum. Gum is found everywhere, in every state of the figure or the face, where on the gum and pull, maybe a foot, maybe a yard. When it is out, you cannot either win or lose it, one can either win or lose it, one can either win or lose it, one can either win or lose it. The disadvantage here is that when the gum is exposed to air, it will lose its flavor. Also articles of gum with me?

Perhaps Not the Place

"The lightning bug is brilliant with a headlight on behind." The lightning bug is brilliant with a headlight on behind. As usual, the students at Montana State College were chuckling over "Bar None," their joke column. We laughed too, at..."The lighting bug is brilliant with a headlight on behind." The lightning bug is brilliant with a headlight on behind. We laughed too, at...

College Caravan

On the Caravan this month, we met three students from the University of British Columbia, swallowing the past in order to obtain funds for their new gym. There must be an easier way.

According to Char, one of Western Washington College's most colorful characters, "This is a young man's fancy to turn what the colds have been thinking about pretty hard for three years."

Roland Elliot's lecture about his recent survey of the activities of the World Student Service Funds in China, India, Japan, and Europe, stirred Boston University students to an even greater enthusiasm about the usefulness of the Fund.

The Caravan stopped briefly in Alaska to offer congress to Haitis Keenan, Queen of R. I. State's Soph Hop!

"As usual, the students at Montana State College were chuckling over "Bar None," their joke column. We laughed too, at..."

"Do you have a book called Man, the Master of Women?" asked a freshman of the college librarian.

"You'll have to look in the fiction section for that one," she replied.

While we were dropping Ellen Russell off at the U. of Maine to join the K.O.T.C., we learned that Soledo's Wilf, the popular Broadway hit, is to be presented at their Little Theatre this month.

Campaigning for Vice-Presidency of Student Council was the main issue at State College, Albany, New York as the C.C. polled. By party platoons seemed much the same as ours.

THE ANCHOR

Page 2

EDITORIAL BRIEFS

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

A "smattering is never worse while. It is a failure to suppose that an encyclopedic knowledge is desirable. The mind is made strong, not through much learning, but by the thorough possessing of something." —Applon

FROM THE TUTORIUM

Sometimes in the maze of extra-curricular activities, the main job—the main job of being a teacher—is to teach—the main job of the students is to study—all else is extra.

THE BARNARD PAGEANT

Continued from Page 1

Lent

Lent is the keynote of this season. Candy, cokes, ice cream, and sweets of all kinds are shunned. Whether the martyrs with the long faces are more prompted by the state of the figure or the state of the soul. This should be a time of giving—giving a little more of ourselves to home, school, church, or community activity.

FOOD FRONT

"Commitments of wheat for Europe were 150,000 tons short in February and will be even less substantial this month, Secretary of State Anderson announced. Poor coordination of boracic-facilities, and the grain lobby's desire for higher profit and for the end of price control are two factors contributing to this wheat shortage. The former situation can be remedied easily, but the latter is a bit harder. It points up the fact that there is a need at all levels of the food industry to better educate the public on what goes on at the farm regardless of who suffers. This time the hungry children of Europe pay.

RUSSIA'S REFUSAL

Rusua's refusal to remove her troops from northwest Iran is, on the face of it, an abrogation of the Anglo-Soviet Treaty of 1942, which provided for simultaneous withdrawal of British and Russian troops by March 2. The matter of the withdrawal of the Soviet troops from Iran is made strong, not through much learning, but by thorough possession of the situation. The reporters speak only in political terms.
Shakespeare's Here Again

Thirty-five years ago, Professor Adeline Patterson produced for the first time what she considers the pièce de résistance of Shakespearean comedies, As You Like It. In the spring of 1925 the play was repeated with Trustees John Brown as the Duke and C. Owen Ethier as Silvius. That was the way back in the days when there were sufficient men to fill the parts of the male characters. But in the past few years young ladies have done a very fine piece of work in masculine capacities. In my opinion, however, not to place girls at a disadvantage, Professor Patterson has never assigned male roles to both sexes in the play.

Again in 1944, Rhode Island College of Education, following a custom of the Dramatic League to sponsor one classical drama, presented As You Like It. For the first time the students have always been invited to the dress rehearsal and their enthusiasm and interest has encouraged the cast. Professor Patterson recalls how, one year, seven hundred people packed the hall (half a production),

Now in 1946, As You Like It was staged again under the same capable guidance, and my only complaint is that in spite of the many old difficulties, there has been a marked improvement in the spirit of the college with all those forced to come to the fore. The students, therefore, have been rewarded for the time spent in rehearsing and in making costumes because of the fact that the students are benefiting by the acquisition of poise and grace.

It was only after a very thorough search among the students that the spring's Shakespearean cast was chosen. Jacqueline McCormick, Katherine Mitchell, and Rose Donatelli played the leads very capably. Other members of the cast included: Mary O'Malley, Eleanor Cooks, Mary Jo Trayner, Evelyn Levitt, Geraldine Dunn, Mary Arbore, Marie Tormey, Marie Thorpe, Barbara McGuire, Patricia Donovan, Ruth Donnelly, Patricia DiSarro, Doris McGlory, Eileen Del Gaudio, Kathryn Brady, Marilyn O'Connor, and Rita Kenny.

The various committees, no less a factor in the final achievement of a published production, were as follows:

Publicity—Terry Farey, Mary O'Connor, Shirley Wright.

Properties—Eva Steve, Madeleine Walsh.

Scenery—Eileen Gheggen, Virginia McCarron.

Lighting—Frank Campbell, William Farrell.

Make-up—Elizabeth Doyle, Ilma Mercuri, Mary Nunes, Catherine Rowley, Eileen Russell, Barbara Tracey.

Ushers—Teresa Marchand, Mary Norton, Grace O'Brien, Jean Sherry, Mary Terrell, Dore Tingle, Mary Lou Fillo, Audrey Lively.

Everyone involved had expended a remarkable amount of time and energy, and, with such determination and perseverance, directed into the channels by Professor Patterson, it was hoped that the students could do something but a grand success, Cast and committees unanimously approved:

"We hope you liked it"

Sports Return to R.I.C.E. Alumni Defeat Students

Monday evening, March 4, marked the perpetual (see hope) reactivation of a much publicized college institution—the intercollegiate basketball game. Because this encounter—between RIC and Alumni—is the first of its kind since 1943, it is of special significance and we are not surprised to find the decided favor of the students. When the final buzzer sounded, the decision for the deciding factor was the height of height. With big Frank Milligan, George Cooper, and Jimmy Sullivan controlling both backboards, the Alumni were a hard team to hold in check. A glance at the scoreboard at halftime revealed the Alumni to be leading 11-9.

Returning to the court for the second half, our boys felt confident of overcoming their foe. But they hadn't counted on Jimmy Sullivan. Dribbling and passing brilliantly, he led the Alumni to a 37-31 lead at the third quarter mark.

During the last quarter, Father Time caught up with us. Since Kaivsky, Lebane, Smith, and Kells had played the full forty minutes, the stifling pace soon claimed them victims. As everyone knows, the result was a 53-34 setback for the Rice men. But we have faith. Students. We shall play the Alumni again in a few weeks and this time we promise you a victory!"
The Anchor

Call of the Frozen North

Rice Flakes

SPRING has come to the front steps, and so have the “grousers twosie”.

WANTED! A pair of shoes for Maggie McCarthy’s postman. We hear that he is wearing out his feet now.

AMONG the other varieties of Jack Kavanagh is his magnificent interpretation of the five o’clock whistle.

WHEN interviewed regarding improvements for the benefit of mankind, Grace Gillie—“Chemistry written in prose.”

Swee’ Rosewell—“Lock up the coke machine and close Sigma Rhino.”

Hope Williamson—“A 3.0 index of college work is not needed; it’s too simple. Everybody has to do it.”

Jack’s historic self-control when asked, “Are navigators officers?”

SHORTING of lost weekends, Jackie Cormick lost herself in the vicinity of Georgetown University. (Washington, D.C.) She claims her brother graduated—hmmm.

DICK KELLS is hoarding cookies for the introduction of each Freshman “Par L c H e a · ch of e A l C K E N G a n n, Ginny Downey, Marilyn Gannon, and Helen Candon’s have already looked lovely, needless to say.

THE hostelers arrived at Northfield from various parts of the country.

LOST! One weekend in New York they wore their uniforms, too. (To get better service, it seems.)

SPEAKING of lost weekends, Jackie Cormick lost herself in the vicinity of Georgetown University. (Washington, D.C.) She claims her brother graduated—hmmm.

DICK KELLS is hoarding cookies in his pockets. (This no doubt is the formula for the candy bars given out by upperclassmen.)

SPRING is the time when one’s fancy turns to thoughts of — and Helen Candon’s have already turned.

THE award of the month goes to Frank (“Yo-all”) Campbell for his superior effort when asked, “Are navigators officers?”

THE Senior-Freshman Fete Frosch At Mardi Gras Party

M. A. A. REPORT

Nothing daunted by the severe test suffered at the hands of the Alumni, the Men’s Athletic Association has made tentative plans for three or four additional games during the remainder of the season. On the evening of January 12 the Winter Coeds encountered the Dartmouth Girls Captain in a game of “Deep Purple”. The game was played with a score of 4-1 in favor of Dartmouth. The人居r was attended by a large audience.

ALUMNI NEWS

Jack Fallon and Louise Morris Fallon, both former Ricans, are commencing to live happily ever after. Louise graduated in 45 and Jack, president of the Class of ’45, left R.I.C.E. after his first year here to join the Navy.

FACULTY NOTES

Mrs. Edith C. Becker is preparing an article on the sculpture and painting of Gino Conti, Providence artist, to be included in a future publication of Design Magazine.

Mrs. Becker is also submitting several pieces of ceramic sculpture and a water color painting to be shown at the Seventh Annual Exhibit of Rhode Island Art which is to be held at the School of Design Museum, April 7-28.

STRAIN OPTICAL CO.

Prescription Opticians

907 STRAND BLDG.

77 WASHINGTON STREET

PROVIDENCE 3, R. I.

MODERN SHOE STORE

Girls Summer Casuals

$2.49 to 4.98

ALL COLORS

206 WESTMINSTER ST.