I hereby give permission for my poems or artwork to be included in any anthology of works by residents of the Rhode Island Training School that is published under the supervision of the Education Program of the Rhode Island Training School. I understand that confidentiality will be maintained in any such publication, and my works will be identified only by my initials and age.

I also understand that I will retain the rights for any future publication of these poems or artwork in whole or part, and that I am entitled to a proportional share of any royalties that may result from the sale of such an anthology (after expenses).

Furthermore, this hereby documents that I am the true author or artist of the attached works, and am entitled to the copyright on these works.
