Unfound INSIGHT 8/2/97

There is a sparkle in my eye and dirt tends to block my vision It's myself I have found in the darkness of my own decision My heart is too shy to express it's own beats

As my soul starts to turn my brain back to the streets.

I see life as a door of misfortune and greed

It's my soul and my weakness that people will feed.
