Love

Love sometime makes people go crazy. Love is a strong feeling you have inside of you. Love is something you can't explain. Does people know what love is what is love. Does love last forever what do you do when you love somebody. Could you love that person everyday. Love is like a game you have to find the clue or maybe I'm just saying love is strange. If love last forever why people sometime have fix feeling toward other. Love is a strong word if love is so strong why people sometime have hate and love sometime. You could never love for ever and you could never hate for ever. Does people know what love is. People ~~are~~ love in many different way. Love is something you can't tell, know, and explain.
