RISD DESIGN MARKETING COLLABORATIVE
24,000 | MERIDIAN PRINTING

rdsm news is proud to feature the work of the following artists + designers.

Noah David Smith

Noah Smith MFA '04 PH
(www.helicopterpictures.com)
is a photographer and cinematographer whose images have appeared in Dreil, Nylon, Ready-made and Metropolis magazines. He is particularly drawn to views of urban life, often presenting them as triptychs. For our purposes, he graciously allowed us to triple his triptych approach for the urban patchwork on the cover. This spring Noah is focused on completing a series of portraits of RISD students for his degree project before moving back to lower Manhattan with his wife Elizabeth.

Elizabeth Eddins
pages 4 - 7

Liz Eddins '00 GD works as a designer in RISD's Design Marketing Collaborative and recently fell in love with the digital camera. Other new attractions include Miso and Curri, the two adorable kittens she and her husband Oskar Kjörneberg '00 ID recently adopted. Liz often rushes out at the end of the day to practice Tae Kwon Do, which she teaches along with kickboxing at Providence Martial Arts. In April she'll test for her "black stripes," the final rank before earning first-degree black belt (which she intends to do by the end of the year).

Brockett Horne +
Eric Paul Meier
pages 8 - 9

For the design of this feature, Brockett Horne MFA '03 GD played off an illustration by Eric Meier '86 IL inspired by Saturday morning cartoons. Brockett is currently doing freelance design work in the Providence area, while teaching part-time at RISD and at Massachusetts College of Art. When he's not sneaking off for fun in the sun in Venezuela (his wife's native country), Eric works as a senior interactive designer in RISD's Design Marketing Collaborative and coordinates Continuing Education's Web Design and Development Certificate Program.

Julie Fry
pages 10 - 13

Having recently returned to Providence from Toronto, Julie Fry works as a designer in RISD's Design Marketing Collaborative and pursues freelance and independent design projects. She studied in RISD's graduate program (along with husband Yann Polsson MID '09) and holds an MFA in Graphic Design from Yale School of Art. In Toronto she enjoyed fast-paced positions with Bruce Mau and Concrete Design, universal health insurance and milk that was sold in little plastic bags.
