

4-16-1998

AS220: In the Galleries April 16-May 9, 1998

Jaqueline Celeste

Frank Piccirillo

Patricia Arrow

Clare Asch

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.ric.edu/as220_root

Part of the Arts and Humanities Commons

Recommended Citation

Celeste, Jaqueline; Piccirillo, Frank; Arrow, Patricia; and Asch, Clare, "AS220: In the Galleries April 16-May 9, 1998" (1998). AS220 Digital Archive. 258.

https://digitalcommons.ric.edu/as220_root/258

115 Empire Street
Providence, RI 02903

NON-PROFIT ORG US POSTAGE

PAID

PROVIDENCE, RI
PERMIT No. 1794

AS220 GALLERIES

115 EMPIRE STREET
PROVIDENCE RI 02903

APRIL 16 to MAY 9, 1998

CAFE

OPENING RECEPTION:

Thursday, April 16, 5-9 pm

JAQUELINE CELESTE painting

Jaqueline Celeste uses painting as a conduit for deep spiritual experience. A trained dancer, her works often explore the link between movement and paint.

FRANK PICCIRILLO painting

Frank Piccirillo's work depicts ambiguity between the obvious world and a quasi-surreal one.

UPSTAIRS

HERA GALLERY/ AS220 EXCHANGE SHOW Part 2

Hera Gallery is a cooperatively run organization of artists who are committed to running a gallery which represents a broad range of the arts exploring contemporary cultural, social and aesthetic issues. Current members showing are: Patricia Arrow, Clare Asch, Sally Barker, Alexander Broches, Sachiko Furui, Heather Gage, Jon Moscartolo, Barbara Pagh, Fran Powers, Carol Perroni, Roberta Richman, Rene Stawicki, and Wendy Wahl.

Gallery and Wall Art Mart Hours

TUE-FRI 11am-4pm, Saturdays 1-4pm, closed Sunday

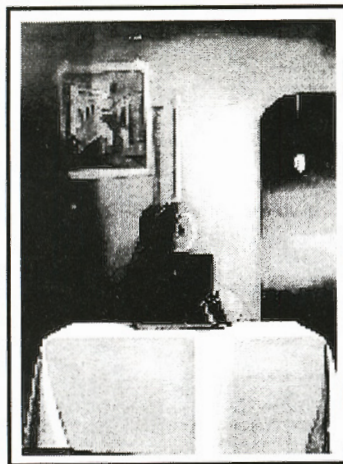

(401)831-9327

DOWNSTAIRS

The Spirit of St. Therese, mixed media 1998

Jaqueline Celeste

Wadudah, oil on canvas, 1998

Frank Piccirillo

April 16
to
May 9
1998

HERA
Gallery at

UPSTAIRS

AS220