AS220's Broad Street Studio

AS220's Broad Street Studio introduces a steady stream of new voices to AS220's mission and programs by reaching out to the youth of Rhode Island. The Studio offers venues, showcases and classes where youth can express themselves artistically. Voices that might not be heard elsewhere, especially those of at-risk youth, can find expression at the Studio.

The Broad Street Studio's offerings create a safe environment in which youth can build communities that compliment the communities they have in school, at home, and in their neighborhoods.

This 20' x 40' mural was created by the Broad Street Studio's mural painting class.
