Violence + BULLYING + sexual harassment + CLIQUES + peer pressure =
A TYPICAL YOUNG PERSON'S DAY.

THE EMPOWER PROGRAM

The Empower Program conducts its work throughout the United States and beyond.

Well we're a-moving on up!

The Empower Program recently relocated to its new headquarters with new contact information:

4420 Connecticut Avenue, NW

Suite 250

Washington, DC 20008

(T) (202) 686-1908

(F) (202) 686-1951

Look Mom, we're authors!

The team at Empower has collectively written a book entitled: Sticks 'n Stones; Redefining & Understanding Everyday Violence. Soon to be sold in our upcoming online bookstore!! Keep watching www.empowerprogram.org for the launch.

Planes, Trains, Automobiles - and a Cruise Ship?

Within the next three months, The Empower Program will be traveling to Maryland, Virginia, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Florida, New Jersey, New York, California, and Louisiana. And in an Empower first, we will be conducting lectures on board the Silver Sea Whisper out on the bonny Atlantic. No place is out of reach of us!!

Shop at Empower!

Keep watching our website for the launch of the all-new online Empower Bookstore where you will be able to purchase not only our new book, but also books from other authors on the subject of teen violence. Or get a tee shirt with the Empower logo on it. Or order supplies and information about Empower's Girls' Advisory Board (GAB) or the Real Young Men (RYM) program, as well as many other items to help empower youth to end the culture of violence.

All this and Train The Trainer® too!

The dates for the winter session of the School Violence Prevention Institute (SVPI) have been set for December 3-5, 2003. We will also be concurrently running Train The Trainer (TTT) along with the winter SVPI. The cost and admission to TTT can be obtained by contacting Dop Troutman at Empower at dtroutman@empowered.org or by calling him at (202) 686-1908.
