About the Artist: Christopher E. Thomas, is a native Rhode Islander, born in 1969 to the parents of Bishop L. Eugene Thomas and Lois Aiello-Thomas. He was exposed since childhood to many different types of artists and art work. He grew to appreciate the many different types of art forms, he explored. From this he was able to discover and develop his own creative style. Besides his sculptures and art work, he also enjoys interior and exterior design concepts. As for looking into the future, Christopher's dream is to become known internationally for his design concepts.
