Stars & Bars

Big benefit at the Last Call Saloon Sunday to benefit UCAP (Urban Collaborative Accelerative Program). I've mentioned them before, but to reiterate and simplify, they provide free music and creative arts lessons to urban junior high kids in danger of dropping out. Bert from AS220, Rory from the Premiers, and Laura Travis, champion and cheerleader of Celtic music all offer their valuable time for free; Sunday, you get a great lineup featuring Rash (Karl says it's their first Call gig ever), Big Nazo, She Cried from Boston, the Local Yokels (featuring local horrormeister Les Daniels), Roomful members galore, the Dennis McCarthy Band with ace git-slinger Paul Murphy and the lovely WHJY DJ Beth Holland. Suggested donation is either $4 or a used instrument that works. Thanks to all musicians and John D. for the effort. Be there.

Saturday evening is truly hairy, so wear your running shoes. Cool Beverages open for Boo Radley, having recovered from the Mill Fire and rarin' to go; Green Magnet School from Framingham are at AS220 with the Meatballs (and another John Moritsugu short), and Omar and the Howlers bring their ragin' Austin sound to the Last Call. Travel light and step quickly. And, as usual, look both ways. □
