H. C. Owen Is Chairman Of International Ball

H. Clinton Owen Jr., vice president of the Plantations Bank of Rhode Island, has been elected general chairman for the third annual International Ball to be held by the International Institute of Providence, a United Fund agency, May 10 at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel. Raymond E. O'Dowd, executive director of the International Institute, said the ball was inaugurated two years ago as a means of introducing newcomers in Rhode Island from foreign lands to a large-scale community project where they would meet and associate with old and new friends.
