TURNING THE CORNER

ABC NO RIO ART AND ACTIVISM

A ABC No Rio is a performance space and gallery located on Manhattan's Lower East Side. We are known internationally as a venue for oppositional culture. ABC No Rio was founded by artists committed to political and social engagement, and we retain these values to the present.

ABC No Rio's genesis was on New Year's Day, 1980, when more than thirty artists occupied an abandoned building and mounted The Real Estate Show, an installation commenting on skyrocketing rents for both housing and art space. The show was quickly shut down by police, the artwork confiscated. The City was forced into negotiations with the artists and offered the storefront and basement at 156 Rivington Street.

Over the years ABC No Rio has been host to an incredible range of artistic expression dealing with war, homelessness, drugs, sex, violence, and the politics of housing and real estate. In the mid-eighties No Rio helped energize the burgeoning East Village performance scene and was instrumental in the resurgence of spoken word and performance poetry. We also became active in the hardcore music scene and instituted a policy of not booking racist, sexist or homophobic bands. ABC No Rio is one of the best-loved punk venues in the world.

ABC NO RIO IS NOT ONLY AN ARTS CENTER BUT A PLACE WHERE PEOPLE SHARE RESOURCES, IDEAS TO IMPACT SOCIETY, CULTURE, AND COMMUNITY. WE BELIEVE THAT ART AND ACTIVISM SHOULD BE FOR EVERYONE, NOT JUST THE PROFESSIONALS, THE EXPERTS, AND THE COGNOSCENT

Stencil by Rebecca Howland

B ABC No Rio has always been available to community and activist organizations for meetings, workshops, forums, benefits and other community services. Groups that have used the space include the New York Committee for Democracy in Mexico, the Coalition to Free Mumia Abu-Jamal, the National Lawyer's Guild Mass Defense Committee, Act Up, the Rainforest Action Network, Steal this Radio, and many others. In recent years we have been closely associated with the New York City squatters' movement.

Recognition and support for ABC No Rio is widespread and intense. Kunstlerhaus in Hamburg, Germany mounted the show 10 Years, 7 Days, a celebration of ABC No Rio's first decade. The founding of ABC No Rio played an important part in the Cultural Economies show at the Drawing Center in New York. This past summer we reviewed our own history for the Urban Encounters exhibition at the New Museum of Contemporary Art. When the City sought to evict ABC No Rio more than 2,500 people signed petitions and hundred of letters were sent on our behalf. ABC No Rio supporters in Prague protested the attempted eviction at the U.S. Consulate there.

C ABC No Rio now has a tremendous opportunity. The City of New York has offered to sell ABC No Rio's four-story building we occupy at 156 Rivington Street for one dollar if we can raise the money to renovate and maintain it.

Finally, we can create for ourselves a secure home for the programs and events that make ABC No Rio so special to so many people, and expand the scale and scope of our activities.

We are already realizing our vision of a multi-use community center, an open and accessible resource for artists, activists, a youth. Complementing existing ABC No Rio programs and projects, our facilities now include a silk-screen printshop, a zine library, a computer center, and a photo darkroom.

To accomplish this ABC No Rio must raise a $500,000. This is far more than we have ever raised but a fundraising effort to reach our target has begun.

MEET THIS CHALLENGE.
