The proliferation of new venues in the past season or so is one of the most exciting developments for folk music in RI as we head into the '90s. One of the more interesting of these is the addition of AS220 to the folk world with their Friday Night Folk series, running the last Friday each month and hosted by the incorrigible Jon Campbell. This Friday, a rare treat — originals on uillean pipes by Patrick Hutchinson (PCB's latest Canadian addition) joined by guitarist and singer Carol Barney. Opening will be Alan Fontana. The rule at AS220 is: Originals or traditional or forget it — if you fit the bill, check out the scene and talk to the management — you might get to play one of the slots on Friday Folk your own self. 71 Richmond Street above Club Babyhead at 8:30 pm Sharp! Put this spot on your dance card while...
